

Steve Muhs

221 Acres of Fun

Taking cues from conceptualism, flarf, and XXX, but beholden to none of them, Steve Muhs crafts poems that are surprisingly sharp and deceptively plain-spoken.

//

He takes the big bang, the cycle of life, science, God, and Freud and tosses in whiskey and salt and drug dealers and policemen. This sacred/profane dialogue is funny and raw.

— LESLEY DAME

Chapbook
Poetry | $10
5.125" x 7" | 32 pp.

Release Date: December 1, 2015

Steve Muhs was born in 1960 and grew up in Southern Illinois. With a master's in art from Eastern Illinois University, he taught art on Fort Peck Indian Reservation and has worked as a roofer and carpenter most of his life. The Missoula Art Museum holds a number of his works in their permanent collection, and his poetry has been published in 6x6. He now lives in a small town south of Missoula, Montana.

---

Media contact: G.L Ford • greg@uglyducklingpresse.org

UGLY DUCKLING PRESSE is a nonprofit publisher of poetry, translations, performance texts, investigative forms, lost works and artist books. For more about UDP, visit www.uglyducklingpresse.org.