

Ossian Foley Of: Vol. I

"[The poems in Of: Vol. I] mix mathematical precision with the innate messiness of human life. They're a language haunted by time itself, infusing a rare emotion into glimmers and flickers. Through his stunning distillations, Foley poises the reader right at the tip of perception, where all is, by necessity, brilliantly new."

—Cole Swenson

"Foley's poems have a Neo-Romantic soul, conjuring conversations with Hopkins, Yeats, and Crane. Cerebral and stringently-voiced, they compel me. They make me curious. They lead with authority. And they reward my patience as they require their reader to listen."

—Erin Belieu
