

I: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I'm writing this letter on behalf _____ of Pedro Cruz García.

I have known Pedro
_____ for over a decade.

Pedro has been working for me _____ full-time ever since I opened _____ my own practice.
He is a very _____ honest and dependable person.

I'm very grateful _____ to have him as an employee
_____ and a friend.

Ever since his wife _____ went back _____ to Mexico, _____ he has been quite down.

He is not _____ as happy as he was when Gude was here,
Pedro used to love

_____ lifting weight after work but he has told me that he is too depressed to do anything. He is doing everything he can

to bring his wife back.

Gude has been gone
now. _____ for over a year

I hope and pray
that she can come back to be with her husband soon.

II: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I'm writing this poem on behalf _____ of Pedro García Cruz.
I have known Pedro _____
_____ for my entire life.
Pedro has been working
for me _____ part-time ever since I opened _____ my own path to forgiveness.
He is _____ a very honest and dependable husband.
I'm very grateful _____ to help him
as a daughter _____
_____ and a friend.
Ever since his wife _____ was deported _____ to Mexico, he has seen _____ the bluest blue.
He is not _____ as hopeful as he was when Mama Gude was in his arms,
_____ to garden
but he has confessed that he is too depressed _____ to do anything. He is doing everything
_____ to bring his wife back.
Gude has been gone _____ for over a year
now. I hope and I pray that she be given permission to be _____ with my father before the man dies of a broken dream.

III: TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing this poem in the best interests of Pedro García Cruz.
I have known this name for countless moons.
Pedro has been worrying for me full time and since then I have forgiven him
He is a silent yet earnest and curious man.
I am obliged to help you
as a daughter
and a friend
Since his wife was deported to Mexico, se ha visto el azul más azul
He doesn't have as much will as before.
when Mom, Gude was in his arms, Pedro used to love
to smile but he has confessed
"I wanted a different life" and insisted "let's talk about anything else."
He is doing everything in his fingertips and power to bring back his wife.
Gude left ages ago
now. I hope and I pray
she be given permission
to be with my father
before the man lets go
and dives
into another spell.
